

A Gardener's Vocabulary...

What's that mean???

“Cooperative Extension”

- The Prince George County office of Virginia Cooperative Extension is your local connection to Virginia's land-grant universities, Virginia Tech and Virginia State University.
- Through educational programs based on research and developed with input from local stakeholders, they help the people of Prince George County improve their lives.
- They provide education through programs in Agriculture and Natural Resources, Family and Consumer Sciences, 4-H Youth Development, and Community Viability.

Pictured is the Prince George County Staff: Scott Reiter, Herman Maclin and Hollie Perkins.